

Emotional Intelligence

Emotional Intelligence (EI) is a set of emotional and social skills that collectively establish how well we:

- Perceive and express ourselves
- Develop and maintain social relationships
- Cope with challenges
- Use emotional information in an effective and meaningful way

EI is a determinant of success and can be developed with the introduction of new behaviors and habits.

